

NATO Parliamentary Assembly
63rd Annual Session
6-9 October 2017

PRESS INFORMATION AND INTERNAL REGULATIONS

WHERE

Palace of the Parliament

2-4, Izvor Street, District 5, Bucharest

Web site: https://www.cdep.ro/pls/parlam/apnato_2017.home?idl=1

PRESS ACCESS

Media representatives have access in the building by using A3S2 entrance (in front of Izvor Park). Vehicles included in the accreditation form will have access in the parking lot provided that they own a special badge.

Persons with disabilities have an access point at the A2S1 entrance, where there are also signposted parking spaces.

PRESS OFFICE ROMANIA

Roxana Lozneau

Head of the Press Office, Chamber of Deputies, Parliament of Romania

Romanian Press Secretariat

Phone: + 40 21 414 1798

Fax: + 40 (0) 21 312 0827

E-mail: flux@cdep.ro

PRESS OFFICE NATO PA

Roberta Calorio

Head of the Press and Communication Service, NATO Parliamentary Assembly

Bratianu Hall, area E, Level P, Palace of Parliament

Mobile phone in Bucharest (from 5/10 to 9/10): + 40 753258738

Office in Brussels: + 32 25048154

E-mail: press@nato-pa.int

The NATO Parliamentary Assembly Press and Communication Service will receive all interview requests regarding members of parliament and committee guest speakers.

ROOM FOR THE PRESS

Press Center “Iuliu Maniu” Level P

Press center “Iuliu Maniu” at level P is equipped with internet and computers. The Wi-Fi network is available free of charge in the entire building.

Press conference room “Spiru Haret” Level P

For the press conference on Friday, October 6, 11:00, translation into Romanian will be provided. The language in which the press conference will be held is English.

INTERVIEWS AND IMAGE OPPORTUNITIES Level P

Inside lobby C4:

There are locations for interviews and photo opportunities in the lobby at the main entrance.

Outside - Entrance C1:

On Monday 9 October, the technical staff of accredited televisions will have access to the main entrance C1, in the area for image opportunities, in order to install the equipment, starting at 6.00 a.m.

CTV BROADCAST TRUCKS STOP Level S1

CTV broadcast trucks for live transmissions by the accredited TV channels can be parked only at the S1 level of the Parliament Palace, in a designated area. Access to the courtyard of the Parliament Palace will be done only using auto accreditation badges at this event.

Note: For live broadcasting of the arrival of guests on Monday, 9 October, CTV broadcast trucks are allowed to park in the area facing the Constitutional Court starting on Sunday, 8 October, 18.00 (vehicles will have access at entrance C1 using the special badge; technical staff and reporters will use exclusively entrance A3S2).

SPECIAL COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Level P+P1

Meetings of all five committees will take place in rooms situated at level P of the Palace of the Parliament. Media representatives accredited to this event will have access to all committee meetings.

Committee reports will be available on NATO PA's web page (www.nato-pa.int), as well as inside the meeting rooms. Speeches will be available on the web page only after they have been held.

A draft of resolutions adopted by committees will be available inside committee rooms as well as online, only after they have been adopted in the plenary session.

PLENARY SESSION, MONDAY, OCTOBER 9

LEVEL P1

During the plenary session, live stand-ups will not be permitted from the plenary hall. Photo reporters will have access to the presidium for image opportunities at the beginning of the session for 3 minutes after the opening remarks.

INTERNAL REGULATIONS

Throughout the course of their activity in the Parliament Palace, accredited journalists have the obligation to wear the special badge on display. Also, journalists must have a photo ID (passport or ID card) if identity verification is required.

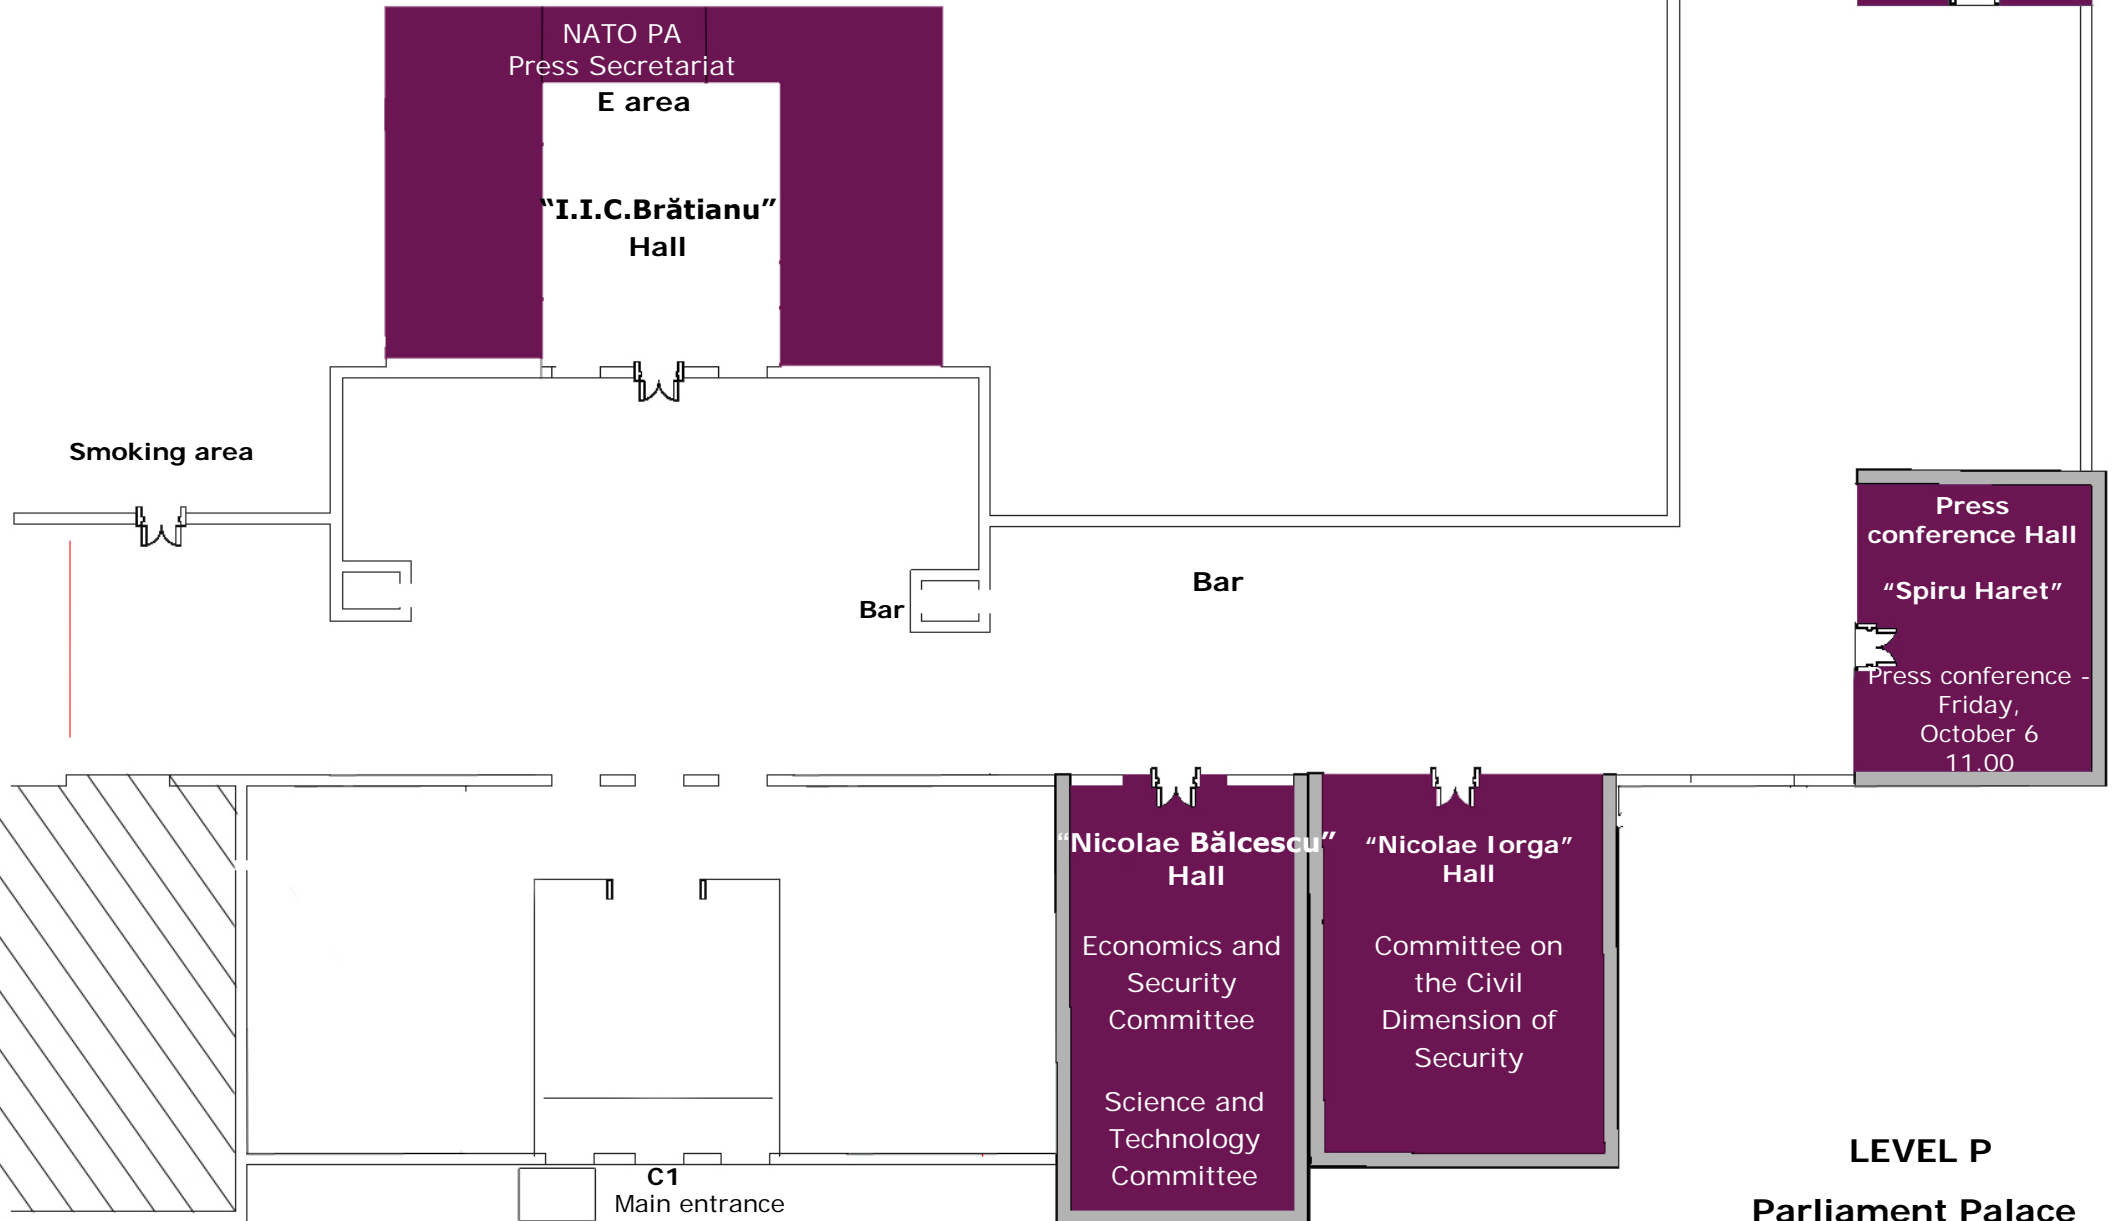

Smoking is allowed only in the specially designated and signaled areas (P level).

During the activity in the Palace of the Parliament, accredited journalists are requested to observe the established access routes, access to technical areas, security control areas and any other area not intended for the event is not permitted.

All persons who have access to the Palace of the Parliament are required to undergo a security check at the entrance to the building.

63rd Annual Session NATO PA

Bucharest, 6-9 October 2017

(Image opportunities—Monday, October 9)

63rd Annual Session NATO PA

Bucharest, 6-9 October 2017

